

Sculpture Without Walls

2007 Winner
"A Delicate Balance"
Wayne Chabre

Sculpture Without Walls began in 2007 as a way to commemorate the City's 50th birthday. The initial program was funded by the Cannon Beach Gallery Group the City of Cannon Beach, Cannon Beach Chamber of Commerce and many community individuals.

Sculpture Without Walls, a public art program, is an annual yearlong outdoor sculpture exhibition. Cannon Beach, has long been considered an arts community and is perched at the edge of the Pacific Ocean, provides a magnificent backdrop for outdoor sculpture.

Sculptures will be selected by a panel of jurors and installed in prominent outdoor locations in Cannon Beach. One sculpture will be selected by vote on May 2 2009, The "People's Choice" sculpture will then be on permanent display. Art is for everyone.

Visitors are invited to visit Cannon Beach and stroll from public sculpture to sculpture and vote at the sculpture site for the People's Choice Award for permanent display. Voting is May 2 & 3, 2009 from 10 am to 5 pm at sculpture sites. 3rd Annual Sculpture Without Walls outdoor public art competition and Spring Unveiling Art Festival (14 galleries participating) May 1-3, 2009.
